

SENT Ventures Announces 1st Chicago Regional Conference For Catholic Business Leaders

Dignity, Solidarity, and Equality: Building High Impact Companies Founded on Catholic Social Teaching

On Thursday, November 2nd, SENT Ventures will host a 1-day conference at the Athenaeum Center in Chicago, Illinois for Catholic business leaders. The conference will focus on how to build high-impact companies through Catholic social teaching, especially through dignity, solidarity, and equality. Special thanks to the Word on Fire Institute, Spirit Juice Studios, LPi, the Athenaeum Center, and all of our sponsors for their generous sponsorships.

This groundbreaking event presents a unique opportunity to delve into the principles central to Catholic social thought and their application in the world of business. A schedule featuring expert speakers and leaders, as well as time for the sacraments, networking, and break-out groups, will further equip attendees to lead ethically and drive sustainable growth, all while building relationships with leaders who share their faith.

Speakers include Jim Perry, Co-Founder and Managing Director of Madison Dearborn Partners; Matthew Petrussek, Senior Director of the Word on Fire Institute and Professor of Catholic Ethics; and Neal McNamara, Co-Founder and CEO of Virtas Partners. The event will take place at the historic Athenaeum Center for Thought and Culture in Chicago's vibrant Lakeview neighborhood.

“We’re excited to bring expert Catholic business leaders together at the Athenaeum Center this November,” said former investment banker, monk, and SENT Ventures founder John Cannon. “If you want insights on how to lead your business in a Catholic way, the Chicago Regional is the perfect place to start.”

The 2023 Chicago Regional is open to Catholic executives, founders, and growth-minded mission and business leaders looking to align their entrepreneurial pursuits with their Catholic faith and learn from industry experts. Registration closes on Thursday, October 12th.
